HIBERNIANS.
What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

The new halls have certainly infused new life.
The Minneapolis Hibernian base ball club is about ready to open the season.

Division 10 of Detroit gave the proceeds of its recent banquet to St. Leo's church.
Con Ford knows how to make the right impression on new members. He is a sure enough Hibernian.

All who attend the meeting of Division 3 on Thursday night will be given a rare treat and surprise.

Secretaries are expected to have their quarterly reports ready for the County Board meeting Friday night.

Tom McKenna and John Brown, who renewed their allegiance to Division 2, have just returned from California.

A class of seventy-five candidates was initiated into Division 1 at Milwaukee this week, bringing the membership up to 460.

Duluth has two good auxiliaries, who are already prepared to entertain the ladies when the State convention meets there.

The Ladies' Auxiliary meets Wednesday night and will have some interesting business to transact. A large attendance is urged.

Minneapolis divisions are preparing for an elaborate demonstration upon the occasion of the visit of National President Cummings in May.

Rev. Father Cleary, the famed orator of the Twit Cities, will address St. Paul Hibernians at the meeting of Division 4 next Wednesday night.

After the initiation of five candidates by Division 2 of St. Paul last week, fifteen applications were received. Retiring President Keefe was presented with a handsome solid gold ring.

The Ladies' Auxiliary at Ashtabula, Ohio, donated $50 to the handsome new presbytery in course of erection in the Immaculate Conception parish, which is to be one of the handsomest in the city.

Under the leadership of President Harrington a united effort is being made to make Division 6 of St. Paul the largest in the Twin Cities. Initiations take place at every meeting and a number of applications are waiting to be acted upon.

Michael Keane, a pioneer member of the order, who has been unable to leave his home this winter, is greatly improved and expects to be present at the meeting of Division 3 next Friday. A most hearty welcome awaits him.

Washington Hibernians have begun their campaign to raise funds for the erection of a home of their own. Francis Sheehy, District President, has announced the appointment of a building committee, of which Editor Hattigan is a member.

The Duluth divisions are reported making steady progress in securing new members, and it is the intention to make a record showing when the Minnesota State convention meets there. At a meeting held last week in Cathedral Hall many applications were acted upon.

The State Board of Iowa has issued an address urging divisions to use all efforts to increase their membership, and offering any member who organizes a division with twenty-five insured members the sum of $50. One dollar per capita will also be paid for each and every member taking out insurance in the order.

Milwaukee Hibernians have taken an important step in securing the study of Irish history in the parochial schools of that city. Four hundred copies of an Irish school history were purchased and are now being used in the seventh and eighth grades in seven schools. To stimulate the interest of the students prizes will be awarded to the most proficient scholars at the close of the school term.

DUBLIN HOTELS.
Are Fully Booked For the Months of June and July.

An especial inducement for visiting Ireland the coming summer will be the Irish International Exhibition to be held in Dublin. Spreading over fifty-two acres of land, within a mile and a half of the center of the city, 500 Irish workmen are busy transforming mounds into lakes and hollows into grass plateaus. Stretches of mud are becoming broad gravel walks or beds of rich soil, ready for flowers. Upon the barren meadow land there are arising fine structures, whose roofs will cover the products of the world's industry. It is now believed that all will be in readiness for the opening of the exhibition during the first week in May, and it is to remain open to the public for six months. A great rush of visitors is expected, and already the large Dublin hotels are fully booked for June and July. A letter from Dublin advises Americans who contemplate visiting the exposition to begin arranging for accommodations without delay.

VACATION IN BELGIUM.
The Rev. Julian T. Pieters, pastor of Holy Trinity church at Fredericktown, this diocese, will leave soon for Belgium, where he will spend a three months' vacation visiting his venerable mother. Father Pieters is one of the most popular pastors Holy Trinity has ever had, and while the congregation will regret his absence they are glad that he is to have such a pleasant vacation.

MONUMENT TO ARCHBISHOP.
To commemorate the name of the illustrious Archbishop John Hughes, the great New York prelate to whom American Catholics are so deeply indebted, it is proposed to erect a monument in the form of a church in the "Green Woods of Truagh," County Monaghan, his birthplace. Rev. Patrick Callan, the present pastor of the place, is the projector, and has received from the Most Rev. Archbishop Farley a contribution of $50 and permission to collect in the archdiocese.

RECENT DEATHS.

Last Sunday news was received here of the death at Birmingham, Ala., of John M. De Wolf, a former well known and respected resident of this city, who for years was with the Water Company. Besides his wife two sisters, Mrs. L. E. Jeuner and Mrs. Sarah Brown, of 208 West Walnut street, survive him.

Mrs. Maria Moran, sixty-five years old and widow of the late Patrick Moran, succumbed to a stroke of paralysis Tuesday night at the home of her niece, Mrs. Charles McGoff, 1341 Bank street. This was the second attack and owing to her advanced age there was no hope for her recovery. The funeral took place yesterday morning from St. Patrick's, of which she had for years been a faithful member.

After an illness of over a year Mrs. Jane Alvey passed peacefully away Sunday morning at her home, 652 Fifth street, in the sixty-fourth year of her age. Mrs. Alvey was a native of Louisville and had resided here all her life. She is survived by two daughters, Misses Blanche and Rose Alvey, a sister, Mrs. A. A. And, and one brother, William Benedict. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Cathedral, of which she was a pioneer and devout member.

John W. Brown, a well known member of the fire department, died Thursday morning after an illness of two weeks at his residence, 1427 Seventh street. Before entering the fire department Mr. Brown was employed at the Turner, Day & Woolworth Company, where he has a host of friends who will be sorry to hear of his untimely death. He is survived by his wife. The funeral takes place from St. Louis Bertrand's church, this morning at 9-30 o'clock with a requiem mass for the repose of his soul.

Mrs. Catherine Wunsch, born in 1826 but for nearly sixty years a resident of this city, passed to her eternal reward Monday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Rosa Volz, 321 East College street. She was the wife of Louis Wunsch, Sr., and leaves five children, Louis Wunsch, Jr., Edward Wunsch, Mrs. F. E. Lutz, Mrs. Rosa Volz and Mrs. F. W. Turner. The funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning by Rev. Father William Gausepohl at St. Mary Magdalen's church, of which deceased was a most devout member.

The final summons came Tuesday night to Mrs. Anna Murphy, widow of the late Michael Murphy and mother of John Murphy, of 1227 East Broadway. Mrs. Murphy was a native of Ireland, being born in County Cavan seventy-five years ago. She possessed all the virtues of a Christian wife and mother, and during her long residence in Louisville she brought sunshine and happiness to all whom she met. The funeral took place yesterday morning from St. Aloysius' church, Father O'Grady celebrating the mass of requiem and dwelling feebly on the exemplary life and worth of the deceased, who was one of the most faithful members of his parish. Mrs. Murphy leaves three children, John T. Murphy, Mrs. John P. Busch and Mrs. Michael McCarty.

COMING MISSIONS.
The Passionist fathers will conduct the next Catholic mission in this city, which will be held at the Cathedral, beginning Sunday, April 21. Tomorrow the hours of services and order of devotions will be announced. Following the Cathedral mission the Jesuit fathers will come to St. Mary Magdalen's church on Brook street. Father Gausepohl having secured two of the ablest and most eloquent members of that order for his mission.

ONLY ONE OF ITS KIND.
The Rev. Patrick M. Whelan, chaplain of the Philadelphia Protector for Boys, has formed a congregation of deaf mutes and expects soon to begin the erection of a church for them in the Quaker City. If the plan succeeds this will be the only Catholic church of its kind in the world. The congregation already numbers 200 members.

MEMORIAL.
Today is the second anniversary of the death of Mrs. Maria McFarland, for many years an old and respected resident of the East End, in whose memory the surviving members of her family will have religious services this morning. She was the mother of Mrs. Charles Gay, Thomas and Armour McFarland, the Fulton street grocers, and Charles W. McFarland, of the City Engineer's department.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The sums realized through the Irish language collection are reported very respectable. Dundalk alone contributed nearly $400.

Dr. P. McKenna, of Carrickmacross, who was sworn in as a Magistrate for County Monaghan, has taken his seat on the bench.

The Rev. Father Mullen, of Cooley, was the unanimous choice for Chairman for the ensuing year for the County Louth Gaelic Athletic Association.

Much damage was done to hay and corn stacks in Ballinrobe, County Mayo, and a tenement house was blown down by a storm that visited that district.

Daniel McGrane, aged fifty-six, a respectable farmer of Ballagan, who was in apparently good health, was stricken with heart disease and expired without regaining consciousness.

The town of Roscommon was greatly excited recently when ladies and gentlemen, who were stag hunting, galloped through the streets and continued to Carraroe, where the capture was made.

The fatal gale that recently passed over Ireland caused much damage in County Donegal. The force of the wind was so great as to cause the Cathedral bells at Letterkenny to chime continuously for a considerable time.

The body of a well dressed woman, aged about forty-five years, was found in the Blackwater river near Fermoy. Upon her were found a small sum of money, a bead and a latch key, but nothing by which to trace her identity.

Kate McGarry and Bridget Fox, young women residing on Greighton street, were blown to the ground and painfully injured while on their way home by being caught in the blast that passed over Dublin during the awful wind and rain storm that caused floods and damage almost everywhere and delayed all the mails.

The dead body of George McConnell, of Straw, near Newtownstewart, County Tyrone, was found on Tuesday two miles from his late residence. The deceased, who was a small farmer, had been missing since Saturday, when he visited Plumbridge cattle fair, and it is presumed that he perished in the severe rainstorm of Saturday evening.

Up to the present no trace of the body of the girl, Mary Anne Holt, who was drowned in Ballynakeeny river, has been found. It is supposed that she was carried on to the larger rivers, the Glyde or the Lagan, and possibly drifted out to sea. Much sympathy is extended to the parents of the poor child who met her death under such sad circumstances.

While Annie Breen, aged ten years, daughter of Michael Breen, of Bryans-town, County Westford, and member of New Ross Board of Guardians, was searching for fowl on her father's farm she was instantaneously killed by a falling tree which was blown down by the storm. Two of her sisters, who accompanied her, had a narrow escape from a similar fate.

The Dominican monastery at Tallaght was visited by a disastrous fire at an early hour. The fire took place in the old portion of the building, which was used as a laundry and contained a large amount of machinery. Notwithstanding the fire brigade arrived with commendable promptness the premises were gutted before the flames could be got under control.

Consequent on the unprecedented rainfall in County Donegal all the rivers about the Inishowen peninsula overflowed their banks and large tracts of arable land are under water. The large plate glass rose window in St. Ennann's Cathedral was blown in by the wind. Many sheep and lambs succumbed to the intense cold in Strabane district, while the rivers have overflowed their banks for a considerable distance.

FONTENROY
Memorial to the Irish Brigade
Will Be Unveiled in August.

The memorial to the Irish Brigade at Fontenoy will be unveiled on August 25 next. The letters from the Burgomaster of Fontenoy and Dr. Desmond, who has been active in Tournai over this revival of Irish relationship with the homes of the Wild Geese as if he were an Irish Consul, show the interest that is being taken locally in the memorial. Fontenoy has, from the beginning, been insistent upon its claims to the custody of the monument, and is evidently proud of the decision that has recognized these claims. The peasants of the historic battle ground will make a worthy guard. Indeed Fontenoy itself has many of the features of a little homely Irish village, and the exiles on the day of their triumph must have been reminded by some of their surroundings of the homes that they had left in Munster. The Celtic cross will not be out of place on the little village green.

LEAVES GOOD RECORD.
Major Daniel O'Brien, Senior Vice Commander of the New York Department of the Grand Army of the Republic, died in Albany on Friday of heart disease, with which he had suffered. He was sixty-seven years old. Major O'Brien had a notable war record, and for the last ten years had been employed in the Adjutant General's office in Albany.
